

Univision's channel 23 has a Spanish Literacy Program called, "El Club de Libros 23". This segment features bilingual students from different DCPS schools. Our school was selected to participate in this segment.

Mrs. Canero's EFL 3rd grade was recently filmed while they presented a reader's theater called, "Las Vaquitas Rebeldes" written by Maria Alicia Esain, inspired by Una Vaquita en el Jardin written by Marta Gimenez Pastor. It is a fictional story about plants and animals preparing for the arrival of spring. The clip is scheduled to air, next Monday, February 4th during channel 23's news program called "Noticias al Amanecer" that airs between 5 - 7 am.
